

Application for Registration Support

The Application for Registration Support is open to participants from Low and Lower-Middle income countries and for students and early career researchers from any country.

Countries classification is defined according to the World Bank Country Classification. Click here for more information.

In order to apply for the Registration Support, please fill in the form below

Application Form