

Beware fake websites

Please be aware that there are several websites impersonating as the IPVC 2021 registration website. They can be very professional looking and may use online advertising to appear at the top of search results.

The only way to access the IPVC 2021 registration form will be via links on the IPVC Conference website or from the official IPVC Conference organizer.

If you are concerned that you might have been targeted by a fraudulent site, please email us via the Contact Us page.

We look forward to seeing you online!
