35th International Papillomavirus Conference & Basic Science, Clinical and Public Health Workshops (IPVC 2023) will officially run on Eastern Daylight Time (EDT) – Washington time. To convert the conference times to your local time click here.

We encourage foreign participants to apply for their visas as early as possible, we are recommending to do so at least three to four months before the Conference. Some consulates may have backlogs in scheduling visa interviews. Therefore, applicants should first consult the U.S. Department of State's visa appointment and processing wait times website.

Further information on business visas can be found at the U.S. Department of State Business Visa Center website and the IV0 website – the National Academies International Visitors Office (IV0). The International Visitors Office assists international students, scholars, and other travelers who are coming to the United States for scientific purposes. The IV0 additionally provides resources to the broader scientific community on visa interview preparation, travel to the United States, and international conference organizing.

If you are experiencing significant visa delays, please fill out our visa survey. This will allow us to bring your case to the attention of the U.S. Department of State.

An official personalized letter of invitation will be provided to registered participants as part of the registration procedure. This invitation is prepared solely for the purpose of visa applications and is not a commitment on the part of the organizers to provide any financial support or confirmation of inclusion in the Scientific Program. Invitation letters can be provided electronically (PDF) or as a hard copy if required. Hard copies will be mailed via regular post free of charge. In case of special delivery (courier) request, the participant will be responsible for all charges.

To benefit from reduced registration rates, you have to be in good standing for paid membership during the Conference.
